Your Majesty,

RE: RESPONSE TO INVITATION: WORLD MEETS IN GHANA – EXECUTIVE DINNER BALL

It is with great honour and profound respect that I acknowledge receipt of Your Majesty's gracious invitation to the World Meets in Ghana – Executive Dinner Ball, convened in celebration of the 27th Anniversary of Your Majesty's Accession to the Golden Stool.

I am most grateful for this courtesy and wish to convey my warm congratulations to Your Majesty on this distinguished milestone, which continues to reflect a reign marked by wisdom, dignity, and an enduring commitment to the heritage and advancement of the Ashanti Kingdom and African civilisation.

It is therefore with sincere regret that I must inform Your Majesty that urgent obligations within my office have necessitated a revision of my travel arrangements at very short notice, and I am consequently unable to attend this distinguished occasion in person. This decision has been taken with full appreciation of the importance of the event and the high esteem in which I hold Your Majesty and the Ashanti Kingdom.

Your Majesty's reign continues to stand as a beacon of moral and traditional authority, cultural preservation, and continental relevance, reflecting the enduring strength of Africa's royal institutions in fostering unity, identity, and development across generations and continents. Your Majesty has most graciously extended patronage to the United Africa Royal Assembly, as well as to a range of continental initiatives, including those advocating the recognition of slavery as the greatest crime against humanity and advancing the reparations and repatriation agenda. In doing so, Your Majesty has consistently lent the benefit of your wisdom, encouragement, and moral authority to efforts aimed at strengthening African institutions and reaffirming the rightful place of traditional leadership in shaping our shared future.

In my absence, I have arranged for a Special Envoy to represent me at the event and to convey my greetings, respect, and best wishes to Your Majesty and all distinguished guests in attendance. I avail myself of this opportunity to assure Your Majesty of my highest consideration and continued esteem.
